8 A. Not that I recall.

14 A. Yes.

15 Q. And do you recall on how many occasions you
16 saw her?

17 A. No.

A. BLACK

1 ADA Fairstein?

2 A. It was while the video tape was being done.

3 So, maybe 4 o'clock -- 4 o'clock in the morning.

4 Q. Do you recall whether you initiated the
5 conversation or whether she initiated the conversation?

6 A. I walked up to her.

7 Q. Why did you go up to her to speak to her?

8 A. Because I wanted to know how much longer it
9 would be before we could go home.

10 Q. Do you recall exactly what you asked her when
11 you approached her?

12 A. I said something to that effect.

13 Q. Wondering when you could go home?

14 A. Like, how much longer will it be before we
15 could go home.

16 Q. Did you ever say anything to her about your
17 brother, Kevin Richardson, not being involved in the 18 crimes that occurred in the park?

19 A. No, I did not.

20 Q. Do you recall testifying at the Suppression
21 Hearing that you said to her that your brother, Kevin
22 Richardson, was not involved in the rape of the female
23 jogger?

24 A. I don't recall that right now.

25 Q. Do you recall what ADA Fairstein said to you?

A. BLACK

1           A.    I remember she told me that there was a woman
2   who was found beaten with her head bashed in and she
3   might not make it through the night. And I need to pray
4   that she doesn't die. And to have a seat.

5           Q.    Do you know whether there -- those were her
6   exact words?

7           A.    To my recollection, yes.

8           Q.    After that conversation, did you continue
9   speaking to ADA Fairstein?

10          A.    No.

11          Q.    After that conversation, did you ever speak to
12   her again?

13          A.    No.

14          Q.    After the fact -- well, at any time after your
15   time at the precinct, did you ever speak to Kevin
16   Richardson about what actually occurred in the park on 17   April 19, 1989?

18          A.    Not until he was in Spofford.

19          Q.    And was that during a -- an occasion where you
20   visited him at Spofford?

21          A.    Yes. We didn't see him until maybe two days
22   later in Spofford.

23          Q.    And was anyone else there when you visited
24   Kevin Richardson at Spofford?

25          A.    My whole family would go.
